

US Congress passed Resolution designating February 5-9, 2007 as National School Counseling Week

Last week, Senators Patty Murray (D-Wash.) and Gordon Smith (R-Ore.) introduced a bipartisan resolution in Congress officially designating this week as National School Counseling Week. The resolution was passed by the U.S. Senate on February 1, 2007.

Share the resolution with the stakeholders in your educational community. Take a moment to thank Senators Murray and Smith for introducing this bill. Senator Murray in particular has been very supportive of the American School Counselor Association and school counseling through the years. Senator Murray can be reached by fax at (202) 224-0238 or from her <http://murray.senate.gov>. Senator Smith can be reached by fax at 202-228-3997 or from his <http://gsmith.senate.gov/public>.
