

Membership

Becoming a member of the Pennsylvania School Counselors Association is a tremendous asset to your professional career. It is an organization that is comprised of school counselors throughout the state of Pennsylvania.

Counselors need each other for:

- * A strong professional image
- * Personal and professional growth
- * Networking and expanding professional contacts
- * Promoting continually improved counseling services by working with and learning from allied professional organizations such as:

American School Counselor Association (ASCA)

American Association for Career Development (AACD)

Staying on the leading edge of our profession!

WHY BE A MEMBER?

- * Professional development and skill building through annual conference and quality regional workshops
- * Coordination of National School counselor Week activities
- * To advocate for legislative issues that affect students
- * To support PSCA and ASCA in promoting the passage of the national legislation affecting school counselors
- * The PA Counselor newsletter, a newsletter strictly for PSCA members keeping them informed of what is happening locally and nationally in school counseling
- * What Works, a professional journal of current research and best practices
- * Access to Members Only resources, links to lesson plans, survey, free materials
- * Consultation about questions and concerns of school counselors
- * Professional recognition of school counselors and counseling educators